

LANSING QUILTS WILSON CABINET

PRESIDENT FORMED A VALENTINE IN THE HOUR OF RESIGNATION AS SECRETARY OF STATE

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Rebuke by President Wilson for calling cabinet meetings during his illness has resulted in Mr. Lansing's resignation.

The president has accepted his resignation "with appreciation" and Mr. Lansing, second secretary of state, says he leaves the administration over a disagreement with his chief.

Although the correspondence between Mr. Lansing and the President makes calling of the meetings the incident which led directly to the Secretary's resignation, persons "on the inside" who know what has been going on said it was only an incident and that the real reason for the break goes back over a period of many months and hunt for fundamental differences in opinion of policy.

The disagreement between the President and the head of the state department was known even at the time of the entrance of the United States into the war. Relations between the two men almost reached the breaking point in 1917 when Mr. Lansing issued his celebrated statement saying the United States was being drawn daily nearer and nearer the war. The President made every effort to overtake the statement after it had been given out at the state department but it was impossible.

When Mr. Lansing went as a member of the American mission to Paris more difference developed. With other members of the American mission, he was not in accord with the president's ideas of making the treaty of peace and the covenant of the League of Nations one and the same inseparable document. It was Mr. Lansing's idea that such a plan would delay the activity of a peace treaty and in this he was supported by Henry White and E. M. White.

When President Wilson went back to Paris last March and found that during his brief absence in the United States, Mr. Lansing and the others of the American Mission had agreed tentatively at least to have the peace treaty and covenant in separate instruments, the result of the situation came very near a breaking point then, and probably was averted because the President thought it more important not to let European statesmen see a split in the American delegation.

However, the incident which came nearer causing a break than any of the others was the sensational testimony of William C. Bullitt, attached to the American mission, before the Mission's foreign relations committee. Reading from a diary, Bullitt quoted Lansing as having told him he was out of sympathy with the League of Nations covenant and as predicting that the treaty would fail if Americans ever learned of its full import.

Mr. Lansing, obviously in a very difficult position, did not repudiate Bullitt's statement, although it was momentarily expected in Washington that he either would repudiate it or resign his office. Wilson was at that time on his speaking tour in the West and did not see Mr. Lansing again, all their business being carried on in writing.

Frank L. Polk, under secretary of state, became secretary ad interim and will serve until Mr. Lansing's successor has been appointed by the president.

Mr. Polk was regarded as the logical successor to Mr. Lansing by officials, but his friends said he would not consider it because of the condition of his health.

Mr. Wilson in his first letter to Mr. Lansing asked if it was true that he had called cabinet conferences and that if so he felt he must point out that under constitutional law and practice only the president had authority to call together his family officials.

When Greeks Met Americans Tug of War Came

Sam Kasheer was assessed $10.75 in police court this morning on a charge of fighting within the city limits. It is said that Kasheer is a Greek peddler and that he undertook to whip George Cole at the K. C. Wagon Yard. This proved to be an error in judgment for reports have it that Cole proceeded to give the Greek considerable of a spanking. A fellow countryman of Kasheer grew unduly patriotic and attempted to attack Ford with a stick, whereupon another American grabbed a stick and cooled the ardor of the Athenian. The quartet were brought before the mayor this morning, but his honor after an investigation decided that only Kasheer was guilty and discharged the others.

One Campbell was also arraigned in police court this morning. He was charged with being drunk on the streets of Ada. $10.75.

SECRETARY LANE PARTLY TO BLAME

SAYS HE IS JUST AS MUCH RESPONSIBLE FOR CABINET MEETINGS AS SECRETARY LANSING

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Secretary Lane declared today that he considered himself "just as much responsible as Secretary Lansing for the calling of the cabinet meetings during the president's illness." He said Mr. Lansing called him on the telephone and obtained his approval of the idea before calling the first meeting and "presumably obtained the approval of other cabinet members also."

"We all thought the meetings were a good thing," said Mr. Lane who retires as Secretary of the Interior on March 1. "They were often attended by Dr. Grayson and Messages were transmitted to the President on questions discussed. The critical situation precipitated by the coal strike came up for consideration as well as matters pertaining to the first industrial conference and other important questions. I felt that I attended the meetings on a full level of responsibility with Secretary Lansing inasmuch as I had agreed to the advisability of their being held. Other members of the cabinet apparently took the same position."

Asked whether the question of the constitutionality of the meeting ever had been raised among the cabinet members, Secretary Lane said: "No, not at all. The question was never discussed in any way."

German Rifle Range To the Americans for Agricultural Purposes

By the Associated Press
AMERICAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, COBLENZ, Germany, Feb. 13—An old target range where German army recruits were taught to shoot and where young Germans were drilled in the use of the bayonet is soon to be turned over to the Americans for agricultural purposes as part of a plan of the American forces in Germany to teach farming to soldiers desiring to take up such a course. The old range is near Fort Alexander, on a hill overlooking Coblenz on the Rhine. Agricultural text books have been ordered from Washington.

A new educational program being worked out at army headquarters embraces opening of unit schools of instruction for every distinct organization of the American forces in Germany. Thus the Motor Transport Corps is to have a school for automobile mechanics in Metternich, near Coblenz, the signal corps will have a school for the study of telegraphy and wireless, the quartermasters corps will have a school for cooks and bakers, and the engineers will have a school of their own at some point near Coblenz. It is planned to have unit schools at first and a great central school in Coblenz later.

The educational board in charge of this work is composed of Colonel F. S. Young, Lieutenant R. W. Holderness and Major C. S. Haigh.

HIS FIRST "LEAP YEAR" VALENTINE

RICH INDIAN DIDN'T GIVE AWAY MILLION

By the Associated Press
MUSKOGEE, Feb. 14.—Officials at headquarters of the Five Civilized Tribes agency today discounted reports that Jackson Barnett, millionaire Indian, had given away one million, five hundred thousand dollars to charity with the approval of Cato Sells.

Joe Strain, assistant superintendent of the Five Civilized Tribes, said that Barnett has less than one million dollars in cash on deposit at the Indian agency, although his wealth includes one million dollars in liberty bonds and his oil property is in excess of one million dollars.

Gabe E. Parker, superintendent of the Five Civilized Tribes, is in Washington. Other officials said no record of Barnett's charity gift was approved by Mr. Sells had been received at the agency.

RAILROAD MEN MAKE REPLY TO PRESIDENT

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The reply of the railroad brotherhoods to President Wilson's decision in the wage controversy was presented to the President today. Immediately after the union officials sent the telegram to their locals over the country, which B. F. Jewell, president of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, said would serve to "steady our men" until they receive the full correspondence covering the negotiations.

Mr. Jewell would not say just what had been the result of the negotiations, but it seems certain that President Wilson had refused to meet the demands of the two million workers for a general increase in wages but that his decision had been accepted by union officers at least for the present.

RAILROAD BROTHERHOODS REACH AGREEMENT TODAY

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Representatives of the railroad brotherhoods reached a decision today on the proposition made to them yesterday by President Wilson in the wage controversy and it will be communicated to the President through Secretary Tamm later in the day. The union officials would give no intimation as to the nature of their decision or of the President's proposition.

Correction and Apology
In yesterday's News a reporter in some inexcusable manner mixed two items in one and did a grave injustice to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur High of this city. The item mentioned the arrest of two colored people and in the same breath mentioned the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. High, leaving the impression by the mixed verbiage that the Highs were also colored people. In the first place it was Mr. High who was taken to holdenville on a charge and his wife went later only for the purpose of arranging bond for her husband. The news item was in error in both places and the News hastens to make this correction and apology.

POLITICAL EDUCATION OF ALL WOMEN VOTERS

By the Associated Press

Whether the league would subscribe to the program proposed by the executive council of the association and approved by the more than 2000 delegates attending the convention was the subject for discussion at a meeting of the league late today.

EDMOND TAKES SECOND GAME FROM EAST CENT.

The second game between East Central and Central (Edmond) at the Normal gymnasium last night proved the Central team winners. Mr. Wray, who was in charge as referee managed the game well and kept out the roughness which had characterized the game of Thursday night. Both teams played well the first half and in fact the local boys were ahead several times, but in the last half they failed to bring up the score as they had given promise to do. Arthur Vernon, one of the strongest players, was unable to take his place as guard, because of a slight injury incurred Thursday night. The final score stood 34-12 in favor of Edmond. East Central line up was: Forwards Roach and Ingram; center, Kidd; guards Heard and Tolliver.

MONUMENT OF GREAT NAVIGATOR

BIG STATUE OF COLUMBUS TO ADORN BUENOS AIRES AS
THE STATUE OF LIBERTY
DOES NEW YORK

By the Associated Press
BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 13.—As voyagers entering the harbor of the greatest city of North America behold the majestic Statue of Liberty so within the present year those coming to the greatest city of South America will behold a majestic sentinel, a towering statue of Christopher Columbus.

The monument of the great navigator will not, like the Liberty Statue in New York, stand in the harbor, but will rise nearly 100 feet in height from a point near the waters' edge. The site selected is in the broad Paseo Colon, in front of the Government House, whence the statue will overlook the beautiful Plaza Colon and the wide expanse of the River Plate as it enters the ocean.

Representing 10 years' labor of the sculptor, Arnaldo Zocchi, appropriately a native of the country in which the discoverer of America was born, the monument soon will be shipped from the artist's workshop in Rome to Buenos Aires, according to recent advices. The image of the navigator is itself 22 feet high carved out of a single block of marble. It will therefore have to be brought over in one piece.

Critics who have visited the sculptor's workshop recently and seen the work virtually completed write that, for symbolic beauty and grandeur of proportions, the monument will be one of the most impressive in the world.

"The column supporting the statue of the navigator is placed upon an ample socle covered with sculptured acenes and figures," says a Rome correspondent of LA RAZON. "The front part of the socle is the bow of a Latin ship about to be launched into the sea by four youths with naked torsos bent with effort. The scene represents the start of the caravels of Columbus from the port of Palos, Spain."

"High up on the bow of the vessel is the figure of Civilization. In the toga of a Roman matron, she extends with naked arm the torch which illumines the new lands and toward which a youth beside her—Gaius—gazes with inspired countenance."

From this base rises the pedestal, slender as the tower of a light-house, and on its summit, straight and unadorned, in his hand a navigation chart half unfolded, towers above all the yet youthful figure of Christopher Columbus.

CHARM OF EAST IS YET VISIBLE

WAR HAS BROUGHT MANY CHANGES IN TURKEY YET
THE CHARM OF THE EAST
STILL LINGERS

By the Associated Press
LONDON, Jan. 29.—Constantinople is much less picturesque than it was before the war; yet the extreme charm of the East lingers as persistently about the city as it did in the past, writes anonymously an Allied official of high rank in the Pall Mall Gazette.

"When I stood on the famous bridge over the Golden Horn," he went on, "the incredible diversity of orientals one was always wont to see passing was there, but at least 75 percent of them were dressed as Europeans. Some no longer even wore the fez."

"A businesslike air pervades the principal thoroughfares, not because the Turk himself has suddenly developed high commercial instincts, but owing to the great influx of business men from the Allied and neutral countries."

"All commodities command the most exaggerated prices. Great quantities of goods have, however begun to arrive, so that prices will soon begin to decline."

"On the other hand, the workers' wages have reached a stupendous figure. The man who before the war would have earned the equivalent of five shillings, at present refuses to do the same work for less than four or five pounds per day. Cabmen reach the supreme height of extortion at Constantinople."

"Shipping is fairly active in the port. Several Allied warships lie in the Bosphorus. The historic Goeben is in the Gulf of Ismit."

"The British are engaged in rebuilding the road to Therapia. It is singularly new and interesting to witness the spectacle of British, French and Italian troops in the streets; Highlanders in kilts, Royal Italian Carabinieri, and sturdy French Polus marching by with their band."

"The Sultan, of whose impending fate we hear so much nowadays, still goes in State to the Selamlik every Friday. The psychology of the Turks in Constantinople appeared to me to denote indifference, in the sense that they did not seem to care much what political future awaited them. Although the Asia Minor Nationalists were said to be more or less active, there was no evidence of their activities in Constantinople. There the young Turk is at least invisible."

"Of the Germans not one is left, save a few invalids. The former German Hospital has been converted into a British hospital."

"The Robert College, one of the foremost seats of learning in the East, continues to function. The Ordinary native system of education also goes on."

"It was rather striking to find the big mosques free from the tourists. The cost of travel coupled with the difficulties associated with passport forms a barrier to casual, sight-seeing visitors."

Irish Press Cries Against Discharge of Mr. Joseph Byrne

By the Associated Press
DUBLIN, Feb. 13.—Dismissal of Sir Joseph Byrne, the Inspector General of the Royal Irish Constabulary, has provoked an outcry in all sections of the Irish Press.

Sir Joseph has been at the head of the police since the Irish rebellion, and has administered the police measures taken to suppress the Sinn Fein party. His friends say that he has never disobeyed any government order given him. Nevertheless his dismissal is treated as if it were the sacrifice of a popular official.

It is no secret that he disagreed with the government on the question of enforcing conscription for the army against the possibility of its being carried out. There is reason to suppose also that the various measures lately taken for the protection of the police, the arming them with bombs and so forth, seemed to him more likely to make the position of the police difficult and dangerous.

The explanation of the dismissal most widely current is that the government contemplated further measures which would make the police still more of a military force, and possibly associate soldiers with them in the execution of their duties, and that Sir Joseph Byrne disapproved. Among the few supporters of the government the opinion prevails that the dismissal is due to disappointment of the government at the failure of the police in the past three years to prevent, detect, and secure the punishment of crime. Crime, they say, has increased, and none of it is detected. Nobody has been punished for any of the outrages that have taken place, and the identity of their authors remains a mystery. So the government dismisses the head of the machine which has failed.

Ada to Be Home of Big Medicine Manufactory

Fortunes are sometimes made by men with a little article of use to the human family. These men begin in an obscure way, their reputation begins to spread and finally their wares are sent into many states and into the most obscure corner. In Ada Bud Ellison, who operates a small restaurant on North Broadway, is manufacturing and selling Dr. Cunningham's Mexican Catarrh Jelly, a preparation which was bequeathed to him by Dr. W. A. Cunningham of Ardmore.

But is already selling scores of boxes of this preparation every day. Men and women who have been troubled with catarrh for years have found Bud's little restaurant and have learned of the benefit to be derived from the medicine. These have bought boxes, gone their way, returned to get others, and now pronounce themselves cured. Others have been troubled with colds and have found that the Mexican Jelly has cured them in a few hours' time.

If anyone doubts the sincerity of the affidavits Bud has collected from users of this medicine, he needs but go to the restaurant and wait for a few hours to hear what the users have to say. No one can doubt the sincerity of those who tell from hour to hour of the good the medicine has done them.

Every one knows that the influenza is a dangerous disease. No one would claim that any medicine is an absolute cure in all cases, but there are many who are glad of the time they learned of Bud's preparation, for they attribute their speedy recovery to its healing powers.

Physicians have also learned of its great healing power, and now some of them prescribe it as readily as they write out prescriptions to be filled by the druggists.

With thousands of boxes having been sold, Bud has yet to hear of a single complaint. Men come for more, but they never complain that they did not get their money's worth and would be willing to pay several times what Mr. Ellison asks for the same if they were asked to. But Mr. Ellison does not believe in getting rich at the expense of those suffering. He puts the very small price of 50 cents on the small sized boxes and $1.00 for the larger sizes. Seven of the small boxes are supposed to cure any case of catarrh, and many claim to have been cured on a smaller number.

The preparation is made from harmless products of nature. It can be eaten with perfect safety. The baby can play with it without danger. It can be taken internally the most usual method is to use it in the nose or rub on the throat and chest. Directions for the various troubles go with each box.

The medicine is nature's remedy, having come originally from Mexico where it originated thousands of years ago. The mixture, in a modified form, was used by the Aztecs before Columbus discovered America. It has been improved through the ages, and was finally perfected for the use of humanity. It works with nature in curing diseases instead of working against nature. It aids the body in throwing off defects and does not require days for the body to build up strength torn down.

Bud believes in his medicine, and he has a right to believe in it from the testimonials he receives from day to day. If you do not believe this, go down to Bud's restaurant on North Broadway and watch people buy it and listen to their stories.

Arrangements will be made in the near future for pushing this preparation throughout this state and other states. Within ten years, it is believed that Mexican Catarrh Jelly will be a household word in almost every home in the United States. Incidentally Ada may be the home of one of the greatest medicine manufacturing plants in the world. Bud realizes that he has a good product and he also realizes that having a good product he has but to let the facts be known to make a great business of it. His object, however,

NOTHING SMARTER FOR SPRING THAN NATTY TAILLEUR

By Eloise

The tall, slender, willowy girl who affects tailor costumes is indeed fascinating to look upon. Nothing is smarter or more distinctive than a perfectly tailored suit or frock. By tailored I do not mean the severe mannish clothes some women wear, with their stiff collars and sailor hats. I mean the very feminine tailors which permit of a few frills but whose simplicity of line and correct tailoring make them stand out always as the smartest attire for street wear.

Here is one of the most distinctive offerings of the new spring season. Long slender lines characterize this smart navy serge and the flawless tailoring make it particularly appealing to the fastidious woman. Its simplicity is extreme, but that only enhances its smartness. The frill of cream net, which forms the revers softens the severity of the outfit and gives a note of color contrast which is effective.

A smart little chin chin hat of black lisse straw faced with satin is a chic topping for the suit. Burnt orange coque feathers which have the popular downward sweep are the only trimming. The useful little neckpiece of stone martin will be found very comfortable on the raw days which do manage to come even in the springtime, and the patent leather pumps cut high over the instep are the very newest hint of spring from the shoe shops.

In pushing the matter is not only to make money but to benefit humanity.

OPPOSED TO SALE OF THE GERMAN LINERS

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—A concurrent resolution directing the shipping board not to sell the 34 former German liner which the board plans to dispose of at public auction here next Monday, except two regular fittings, after three months advertising, was introduced today by Senator Ashurst, democrat of Arizona.

The resolution was offered in the midst of a debate on the sale of the ships. Ashurst declared that it was a fact that the shipping board and Emergency Fleet Corporation intended to sell the vessel to the International Mercantile Mariner for $28,000,000. He said the vessels had a pre-war value of $150,000,000 more, and present value of $3,000,000.

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP

Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wyandotte, Mich.—"For the last four years I have doctored off and on without help. I have had pains every month so bad that I would nearly double up. Sometimes I could not sweep a room without stopping to rest, and everything I ate upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and sent him to the drug-store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and threw the doctor's medicine away. After taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. BRUNO MAYER

Establishes New High Record for Registered Cattle

Bruno Mayer, the Largest Breeder of Registered Cattle in Pontotoc County, Sold at the Sale Here Thursday

GOVERNESS DON

A Registered Hereford Heifer For a Sum of $650.00

So far as the reporter was able to learn the highest price ever paid in Pontotoc County for a young heifer. She was bought by P. A. Norris, banker and farmer who knows what cattle are worth. Governess Don was born April 22, 1919, being 9 months and 20 days old on the date of the sale. She tipped the scales at 670 lbs., which means that she brought almost $1.00 a pound. Mr. Mayer considers her one of the best calves he ever raised and she was a member of his show herd last fall and winter. Her mate went to F. E. Plummer of Coalgate for the sum of $300.

Mr. Mayer now has 130 head of registered Herefords making him one of the big breeders of eastern Oklahoma. It is said of him that he is one of the best judges of good livestock in the Southwest. It is worth any one's time and expense to go to his ranch in the eastern part of Pontotoc County and view his herd. Some of his bulls weigh as much as 2,100 pounds each.

DON'T FORGET YOUR
SMOCK THIS SEASON

By ELOISE.

In this month of blouses do not forget the smock. That very practical and at the same time becoming garment promises to be as popular this year as it was last. Many models are being displayed for southern wear now which will be good for wear far into the summer season. The spring showing of blouses boasts of many smocks ranging in price from $3.95 to $45, which proves that there is a smock for everyone. Many dainty one of linen or wonderlin in white or colors embroidered in pretty yarn or cotton designs may be had at the more moderate prices and they are very smart for garden or sports wear with white or colored skirts. The more expensive smocks come in georgette, chiffon, silks, satins, kumsi kumsa and other costly materials. Embroidery is the favored trimming. Round necks and belts are also usual features of the new smock.

Here is a very attractive model seen in the displays of clothing for the southern traveler. It is fashioned of a basket weave cotton fabric in brick color. A wide border of embroidery done in gray trims the round neck and the merest outline serves to trim the narrow belt. This is worn with a skirt of gray tussah silk. The large sailor hat is ray straw with a design embroidered on it in brick colored raffa.

WINTER LEAGUES
TURN OUT STARSWHERE THE SUN SHINES WARM
IN OFF-SEASON, THE TRUSTY BATS ARE NEVER SHEATHED

Where the sun shines warm in winter the baseball bats are never sheathed.

Around the southern border line of the United States, from Palm Beach, Fla., up the west coast to Santa Barbara, Cal., winter baseball leagues hold forth in sport limelight.

They are prospering. The fans like it. The game never grows old to them.

There is money in it for the players, too.

Under the present system of contracting ballplayers they are on their "own time" when organized baseball parks lock up their gates in the fall.

Many of the big league managers advise their players to rest during the off season. They say it doesn't do them any good to play ball the year round. Then there is the chance for injury. They want 'em to report all fresh and starchy at the spring training camp.

But just the same the box scores show many familiar names from the big time in the winter circuits.

Big Year on Coast.

This has been the banner year for players on the Pacific coast.

In Santa Barbara three winter organizations have been doing a big business.

In San Francisco Charley Graham, Seal skipper in the Pacific coast league, has conducted a flourishing loop, Graham predicts that at least 40 players from the California circuit will be found in professional baseball this summer.

Midwinter leagues in Sacramento and Oakland will also graduate a good sized class into professional baseball.

Leagues in Los Angeles and San Diego territory are made up of professionals almost entirely. Babe Ruth managed a club during his sojourn in southern California.

Down in New Orleans the Dixie winter league is having a successful season. Fred Eberhard, secretary of the circuit predicts that a score of his youngsters will get tryouts in cough so quickly it alarmed her.

"I suffered with bronchial trouble and asthma for 16 years. In January, 1904, I had an unusually severe spell, resulting in pneumonia and was confined to bed for 4 months. Then I began to mend, but my cough never left."

The following October I tried Milks Emulsion. After a few days my cough gave way, and ceased entirely after another bottle—so sudden that I became alarmed. Getting over my fear, I took 9 bottles more. For 3 months previous I had coughed night and day, but my cough ceased entirely. For 16 years I used all kinds of medicines until I became skeptical. But the results from Milks Emulsion were nothing short of marvelous."—Mrs. J. B. Crawshaw, 1438 1/2 Ave. Des Moines, Iowa.

For bronchial or other severe coughs, or hard colds, Milks Emulsion is really remarkable. The system is built up and strengthened to throw off the trouble.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural body action, and is away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. BY LIGHT OF THE MOONBut, Horrors! She Is Discovered, and Shows Three Very Shy
Young Bachelors

The newest fad in bathing costumes is one that you can put in your vanity box. This is the style that Constance Talmadge sets in "Two Weeks." But it is not for the beach in broad daylight. Goodness gracious, No!

Miss Talmadge, spending a fortnight in the house of three bachelors, slips out at night to take a plunge in the lake. She doesn't hang her clothes on a hickory limb, for she hasn't any to hang. She just folds them up in her vanity box and clad in moonbeams and firefly glow she plunges into the lake.

But horrors, she isn't the only one that bathes by moonlight and she is discovered. And the three bachelors are put to rout. "Two Weeks," Miss Talmadge's latest comedy drama, taken from the play "At the Barn," by Anthony Wharton, will be shown at the Liberty Theatre, on Monday and Tuesday.

It is the story of the rise of a chorus girl to stardom. She is initiated by her escort to a country place, flees on a truck and finds herself at the home of three crusty bachelors. She ramps them to a finish and all three fall in love with her. Now what could a poor girl do with three men in love with her?

PUSSYFOOT TO QUIT ENGLAND

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 13.—W. P. Campbell, custodian of the State Historical society has just received a letter from "Pussyfoot" Johnson, now in London, England, saying he is leaving within a few days for South Africa to recuperate.

According to the letter, Johnson is not going to South Africa to do any prohibition work but to rest. He says his health is completely broken down as a result of the numerous beatings and frays he has had in

FIVE CITIES REPORT
EPIDEMICS OF "FLU"

Influenza rages quite as fiercely in Tulsa, Okmulgee, Hugo, Idabel and Durant at present as in the darkest days of the epidemic more than a year ago. Dr. A. R. Lewis, state commissioner of health, said last night after receiving reports from those cities. Many deaths, the number not mentioned, are reported in Tulsa.

With more than 2,000 cases, Okmulgee is the most severely stricken place in Oklahoma. Dr. Lewis said last night. Tulsa has approximately 2,000 cases, he estimated, Hugo, 600; Idabel, 500; and Durant more than 400.

LET'S GO

Next Tuesday is the day to get on the bandwagon. The annual membership drive of the Chamber of Commerce will begin on that day and date and a new census of Ada will be taken. Every live wire in the city, be he male or female will join in the grand rush to get on the roll of honor. The people who count will be enumerated, every hide and tallow of them, so to speak.

It is going to be another day of judgment. The sheep are to be separated from the goats. You couldn't keep a booster off the lists with a machine gun. You couldn't drive a dead one into the procession with a pile driver. But such as they are both classes will be lined up, those for a great, big, live, hustling, growing, booming Ada: those for the dust and silence of a moss back's refuge.

Let's go. We never come this way but once, and we shall never have another such opportunity to help build a city. This is the only chance, and wise is he as Solomon who lends a hand and helps put the city over. Banish the blues and get in the game. A bird in the hand beats bats in the belfry.

Some two weeks ago it became our solemn duty to gently chide the McAlester News Capital because it had deigned to indict the entire population of Mississippi. The anger of the News Capital had been aroused by the failure of the Mississippi legislature to ratify the suffrage amendment to the national constitution. In its anger the News-Capital said some very naughty things about the entire state of Mississippi. But in its issue of Thursday the News Capital is constrained to protest strongly against an article attacking all Oklahomans that was published recently in Leslie's. It seems that Leslie's had disapproved a speech delivered in Oklahoma City by C. B. Ames, and proceeded to brand Oklahoma as a land of Socialists and of Socialistic tendencies. Leslie's was undoubtedly wrong in indicting the entire state of Oklahoma, but the News Capital should know that Leslie's had just as much right to indict Oklahoma as the News Capital itself had to indict Mississippi. A newspaper is going a little far when it attacks all the people in any state just because the paper is displeased with certain citizens of the state.

We are in receipt of a strong appeal from the Democratic State Central Committee urging all legislators to support a resolution ratifying the woman's suffrage amendment to the Federal constitution for the reason that it will help Senator Owen in his fight for the presidential nomination. Will the state committee please tell us why the tax payers of Oklahoma should bear the burdens of a special session of the legislature just to help Senator Owen in his political ventures.

One of the most picturesque characters of the newspaper world of Oklahoma passed out when Col. J. S. Holden died at his Ft. Gibson home the first of the week. He came to the Indian territory in the early days and located at Ft. Gibson when it was the most important post in what is now Oklahoma. He lived an active and useful life, and left his mark on the history of his state. Peace to his ashes.

It is altogether unfair to criticize the governor for granting a parole and ignore prosecuting attorneys and jurors who convict men and then ask the governor to parole them. The juror who votes to send a man to the penitentiary and then tells the governor he always doubted the man's guilt is some kind of a citizen, he is some kind of a citizen.

The senate has been debating the peace treaty just 215 days. Yes, it is the same senate that early in the war wanted to take charge of all war activities in order that the war "might be prosecuted with vigor and an early peace attained." Oh. Mama.

Samson killed only 300 men with the jawbone of an ass, but just think of the execution he could have done if he had only been a United States senator.

The thing that makes it so interesting is that for the first time in history every American thinks every other American is wrong.

An enthusiastic admirer of Hiram Johnson refers to him as the "fearless commoner." We agree that the more we learn of Hiram the commoner he gets.

The State Press

Shawnee News: Let us hope that Prince Freeling's forensic battles may be bloodless, despite his antagonist.

Oklahoma City Times: Now that von Hindenburg has a fine opportunity to go to Paris, it seems he doesn't want to go. Those Germans are a contrary lot.

McAlester News Capital: As far as the Senator Newberry trial has gone to date, the only crime we have proved it that Newberry seemed to put a higher cost price on the Michigan vote than his rival, Hank Ford.

Shawnee News: Now Tulsa is charged by Sapulpa with counting in its census men on the payroll of Tulsa oil companies who live in Sapulpa. But Sapulpa should not kick. It is the only chance for her to be the biggest city in the state.

McAlester News Capital: Now that the Allies' armies are scattered, Germany feels very indignant that the war leaders should be demanded for trial for their crimes. But some how Germany repressed her indignation on November 11, 1918.

McAlester News Capital: "Confessions of an American Deuce half shot down in Texas," is the subject assigned to a former U. S. airman for an address before a Muskogee club. We are beginning to get the real inside dope on the war after all.

Tishomingo Capital Democrat: Why was the state democratic convention held in Muskogee? To nominate Owen of course. Why was the National convention held in Baltimore, Md? To nominate Wilson of course. Why is the national democratic convention to be held in San Francisco, California, this year? Echo answers why? Watch and see.

Oklahoma City Times: As an exhibition of the modern steam roller in action, the republican state convention was all that could be desired. But there are reasons why the republicans should remember that such methods in politics, do not satisfy nor attract voters. It has not been so long since the convention of 1912, but there are republicans who have forgotten that event, apparently.

Tishomingo Capital Democrat: When the legislature convenes to adopt the Woman's Suffrage amendment the bars will be thrown down and all matters coming before the house and senate will be taken up. Campbell Russell is sure to be investigated and thousands of dollars will go glimmering from the pockets of tax payers. We still contend that a special session at this time is unnecessary and unjustifiable regardless of Bob Owen, or Bob anybody else. It's dam foolishness, that's all.

PARKER SAYS WILSON HADN'T STOPPED STRIKE

By the Associated Press
DETROIT, Feb. 14.—President Wilson's proposal yesterday to representatives of the various railroad unions contained nothing that would warrant the withdrawal of the strike order issued, Allen B. Parker, head of that organization, said today.

Pershing is a "Peach"
LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 13.—Gen. J. J. Pershing's grandparents and those of Marshal Ferdinand Foch, commander-in-chief of the Allied army, lived in neighboring provinces in France during the first quarter of the eighteenth century. Those of the former dwelt in Alsace and those of the latter in Lorraine.

Furthermore, there is a street in Alsace which was named after some of the general's ancestors, and still further the name "Pershing" is of Alsacian origin and means, in the lexicons of the language, a "peach." This information was brought to light in a letter from Major General Charles Miller, former commander of a Pennsylvania national guard division, to Mark W. Woods of this city.

Following is an extract from the Major General's letter: "Providence moves in a mysterious way, its wonders to perform." In 1858 there was born in the City of Metz, Lorraine, Ferdinand Foch. He lived there until he was thirteen years of age when the German Huns invaded the province. He then moved to Basque country in France and a short time later entered the military school in Paris and is now the most wonderful military genius in the world.

"In 1860, John J. Pershing was born in a little village in Missouri. He was of Alsacian parentage and his parents formerly lived in a place called Colmar, Alsace. As you know he became the greatest military genius in America. Strange but true it took a descendant of Alsacians and a son of Lorraine to restore Alsace and Lorraine to France. "The name Pershing was formerly spelled 'Pherin', which in Alsacian dialect means 'a peach.' There is a street in Colmar called Peach street. Therefore it can be truly said that General Pershing is a 'peach.'"

POWERFUL DRAMA OF LOVE AND HATE AT AMERICAN

On Today there will come to the American Theatre a brand new "Flying A" picture, that is being hailed everywhere as one of the most absorbing romances ever flashed upon the screen. It is "The Tiger-Lily," the pictured love-story of a beautiful Italian girl living in America. As played by Margarita Fisher in the title role, it presents a rare study in human emotions—love, fear, sympathy, hate, jealousy, pathos, revenge—brightened by youth and romance and touches of delightful humor.

The star, known as Carmina, other-wise "The Tiger-Lily," makes an entrancing daughter of the South with her flashing eyes, supple figure and glorious hair. Through her efforts to keep peace and harmony in her little community, Carmina becomes involved in a chain of circumstances, from which she emerges as the affianced sweetheart of a young American millionaire.

There is an all-star cast supporting Miss Fisher, with Emory Johnson as the lover, popular J. Barney Sherry as his aristocratic father Mme. Rosita Marstini as his worldly step-mother, and Beatrice Van as a haughty society "flapper"—the girl they want him to marry. George Perlat is seen as a typical Italian inn-keeper. E. Alyn Warren as a vindictive Neapolitan bent upon vendetta and Frank Clark as a lovable old organ-grinder living in memories of his past operatic career.

The story of "The Tiger-Lily" is from the typewriter of Joseph Franklin Poland, and was selected in fulfillment of the American's desire to present Miss Fisher in a role which would call into play all her splendid versatility and skill in portraying the emotions that sway human hearts. Most admirably does the bronze-haired little actress acquit herself in this striking and vivid picture.

Jack Dempsey Is Keeping In Shape To Defend His Title

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Is Jack Dempsey keeping fit to defend his title as heavyweight king of the world while pastiming 'neath calcium lights of the movie studio? I came here for close-up of the champ as he appears out at Hollywood, Cal., where the Dempsey serial is being filmed. His efforts to keep in fighting trim appear genuine.

Primarily Jack Dempsey is acting now—not fighting.

He boxes some every day—except when screen work prevents. But he does roadwork as regularly as the sun slips up from behind the California foothills.

Dempsey runs from his "mansion" a sizeable two-story house in Hollywood, to the studio every morning—a distance of five miles.

"I do roadwork just the same as if I was fightin' regular," said Jack, when I tried to make a pun on a man running to instead of away from work.

Following his morning run he goes a few rounds with his sparring partners. A gym has been built at the studio for him.

Doug Fairbanks, Tom Mix and Jim Corbett often don the gloves with the Colorado miner. All are lovers of the boxing game.

Bill Tate administers the alcohol rub. The serial calls upon Dempsey to display his strength and power as a fighter. It isn't all "soft" stuff by any means. He tossed one bird clear out of the picture and they had to do it over again.

"The only real scenes in the picture," says Jack, "are the ones where I have to beat up a lot of movie villains."

He actually does it, too, apparently with huge zest.

Dempsey goes to bed regularly at 11 p. m.—sometimes earlier. He is up at 6:30 every morning. The old bromide—Early to bed and early to rise and you'll never meet any prominent guys—doesn't apply to Dempsey.

Jack weighs 201 pounds and is the picture of health.

"I want to be in the same condition when I fight again as I was when I beat Jess Willard," he said.

MAXWELL

Has Won Its Following Through
Its Quality

POUND for pound, the metals used in the Maxwell chassis compare favorably with those in the best cars that the world has produced, according to metallurgists.

There is a deep seated reason for this quality in a Maxwell.

For the fundamental purpose of the Maxwell is to carry the same passenger load over the same roads and at the same speeds as larger and more expensive cars.

It's particular mission is to carry this passenger load in an extremely economical way.

Therefore the Maxwell had to be light. But to make it strong as well as light only the very best of materials could be employed.

Hence, the quality metals.

And it was through the quality of its metals that Maxwell developed its following.

This is a following that began five years ago with a foundation of 5,000 and now reaches a mark of 100,000 in 1920.

300,000 Maxwells now on the highways of two continents are a daily endorsement of the merit of this great car.

Ada Playhouses

At the Liberty
Today the Virginia Beauties are showing for the last time for the week. These people have been here all the week with a complete change of program each night and have played to a full house each time. They have an unusually good number for today. The picture program for today will be another real of the Great Radium Mystery featuring popular Cleo Madison, and also a very funny century comedy called, "Brownies' Busy Day". Special music Matinee and Night.

At the American
Margarita Fisher is featured tonight at the American Theater in one of those dandy shows that are always entertaining where the plot lies between an American and an Italian. This very colorful drama is called "Tiger Lily" and is brimming full of delightful romance and spaghetti. This theater prides itself on being able to always get the best first. The orchestra music alone will be worth the price of admittance.

JESUS' LAW OF SAVING

By Clyde Calhoun Morris

"Whosoever shall save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it." In these words of the Master we have the greatest philosophy of life, and indeed the dominant note of Jesus' own life with the exception that His life was lost for us and not for Himself, and in this His philosophy for us is that we can save our lives by losing them, not for ourselves but for Him.

On first reading these words sound rather strange, but upon reflection we will see that they are pregnant with meaning when we come to consider the great fact of life. The Master is telling us here that it does not matter what else one may accomplish in this life, of business success, of attainments in the arts and sciences, of philanthropy, or any other height of success as the world reckons success, it will profit nothing unless it be done for His glory and in His name. He is saying to us, "Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God." He goes on to say, "For what shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" We often interpret this passage as referring only to gaining the wealth of the world; but it does not only mean this but more. It means gaining all pleasure, all fame, all power of the world; what shall a man be profited if he gain all these and lose his own soul.

Then we see that in the economy of Jesus, we must do everything in His name if it is to profit us anything. It is a mighty fine thing to give ourselves to the service of Humanity; it is a fine thing to give our money to alleviate human suffering, but it is overwhelmingly important that we do it in His name. We have all known people who have done fine things for the world, and who are now doing fine things for the world, but Jesus says we save our lives by doing these things for His sake.

Then Jesus would have us render these fine services for humanity, but He would observe the motive behind the actions which prompts them. Deeds of loving service to the world must be prompted by an inner love for Jesus, and we do it because we wish to see His name honored and glorified. Services rendered to the world from selfish motives will help the world, but not us, so far as our relationship to God is concerned. Peter said to the poor beggar lying at the Beautiful Gate, "Silver and Gold have I none, but of such as I have give I unto thee, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." Notice that Peter did not say in Peter's name; nor did he say, "for your sake," but he said "in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth." The people began to wonder at Peter and John and Peter quickly disillusioned them by telling them not to give him any credit for this deed, but to give the credit to Christ.

Friend, are you visiting the sick? Are you aiding the distressed? Are you giving of your means to alleviate human suffering? If so, in whose name are you doing it? Let's be careful to place the credit where it rightfully belongs. "Whosoever shall save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it."

First Baptist Church
All regular services will be held at the First Baptist Church tomorrow as usual. The Sunday School will meet at 9:45 with Superintendent Ridling in charge. We only had 360 present last Sunday. This was occasioned largely by the reason of so much sickness. We hope to have a larger attendance tomorrow.

The pastor will preach at the morning hour on the subject: "The Message of the Rainbow." We are very anxious to have a large congregation to hear this message.

The Sunbeams will meet at 2:30. The Juniors will both meet at 4:30. Miss Lena Ragsdale will be in charge of No. 1 and Mrs. Dr. Webster will be in charge of No. 2. The Senior B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:30. Miss Abbie Kitchens is President. They are very anxious to have a large attendance of young people.

The pastor will preach an evangelistic sermon at 7:30.

The attendance upon all our services has been fine. We certainly appreciate the splendid congregations that we always have and trust that you will continue to come. We are asking God daily to give us power to preach the Gospel with power. We are striving to be helpful to all the people. We extend a cordial invitation to the people to visit our church.

Will Attempt to Get Repeal of the Tax on Soft Drinks

DETROIT, Feb. 13.—Effort to save the pennies of millions of children is to be made by the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages, representing ten thousand bottlers in the United States, through concerted attack upon the ten percent sales tax imposed on soft drink manufacturers. James Vernor, Jr. of Detroit, president of the national association, has issued a call for a meeting of the executive board in Washington D. C. February 24, when further plans for the campaign will be completed.

Reports of the International Revenue Bureau show that $80,000,000 has been collected on soft drinks. A large part of this money has been paid by the children of the country. They have been forced to spend their extra pennies on five cent glasses of "pop" and soda water by reason of the tax imposed upon the bottlers. During hostilities in Europe few complaints on this tax were received, Mr. Vernor says, but since the signing of the armistice dealers have been besieged with protests from Young America.

An attempt will be made to show the members of congress that soft drinks are not a luxury. They are a part of the daily consumption of the American people, children and adults rich and poor. Since history has been recorded there has been some drink, other than water, which has been a part of the daily life of every race of people on the globe.

The younger element became so serious in its protest against the tax that, last summer, in some cities they formed parades and marched through the streets, carrying such banners as, "Our big brothers licked the Hun. We did our bit too. Mix on the soda tax," and others of similar nature.

Appraisal of Land For Capitol Soon To Be Completed

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 13.—Appraisal of approximately thirty-five acres extending from the state capitol building to Sixteenth street and desired by the state to be parked in accordance with the plan of George E. Kessler, landscape architect, is expected to be completed this week. George L. Steles, Colin Campbell and R. H. Gardner, appraisers appointed by the district court of Oklahoma county, were at work yesterday examining the land.

If the valuation made by the appraisers is approved by the state board of affairs, it is expected the state will acquire the land without delay and begin grading it. Convicts probably will be brought from McAlester to assist in the work. Grading of the tract immediately surrounding the capitol is almost complete now, and it is to be sodded in the spring, board members say.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT AT A. AND M. COLLEGE

One of our biggest events in Oklahoma this year in the way of high school and college athletics is the statewide basketball tournament to be held at Oklahoma A. and M. College, March 4, 5 and 6.

The meet will be held under the auspices of the A. M. Athletic Association and invitations have been sent to all high schools in the state asking them to enter the high school tournament.

The court of the new $100,000 Gymnasium will be used for all games. Prizes of a superior quality will be given, a large loving cup to the winning team of the finals, and a smaller cup to the runners-up. The admission fees collected at the doors will be prorated among all of the contesting teams in proportion to the mileage traveled, cutting down the expenses of the visiting teams. It is expected that more than seventy-five teams will be present to enter the contest.

Drawing for places will be held at 8 o'clock a. m. March 4, and the first game will be called immediately after that. Arrangements are being made to have two games between college teams in the evening of the first two days, the meeting to close with a big athletic carnival Saturday night, March 6.

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR AN EDUCATIVE FORCE

The agricultural fair is an educational institution and in no sense a money-making business. It can be made a success only by intelligent management and the full support and cooperation of all classes and professions. Should we regard the money put into the fair as an investment, from which we are to receive annual dividends in dollars and cents, it is quite likely that we shall be disappointed.

Many farmers pay high prices for inferior planting seeds and breeding animals because they are unable to discriminate between the good and the bad. Many women use scrub poultry, and lack a knowledge of home conveniences. The agricultural fair is the best school for teaching men and women, as well as boys and girls, how to judge field and garden crops, poultry and livestock.

Education of the right kind helps people to become better citizens and to live more useful lives. Since the population of our common wealth is largely rural, it behooves us to give our boys and girls the training that will best prepare them for life's work as farmers, home-makers, husband-men and community-builders.

Then, too, the farmer and his family, after working patiently and faithfully for twelve months, richly deserve a short vacation, and the clean, wholesome agricultural fair meets this demand in every particular.—Extension Bulletin, Mississippi A. and M. College.

New Invention Sent on 30 Days' Trial Without Expense to You.

Simply send me your name and I will send you my new copyrighted rupture book and measurement blank. When you return the blank I will send you my new invention for rupture. When it arrives put it on and wear it. Put it to every test you can think of. The harder the test the better you will like it. You will wonder how you ever got along with the old style cruel spring trusses or belts with log straps of torture. Your own good, common sense and your own doctor will tell you it is the only way in which you can ever expect a cure. After wearing it 30 days, if it is not entirely satisfactory in every way—if it is not easy and comfortable—if you cannot actually see your rupture getting better, and if not convinced that a cure is merely a question of time, just return it and you are out nothing. Any rupture appliance sent on 30 days' trial without expense to you is worth a trial. Tell your ruptured friends of this. EAST-KOLD Co., 957 Koch Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

A View of The Flat Dwellers of The Long Ago

Some one has referred to the residents of apartments as modern cliff dwellers, each little group found in their proper pigeon-hole there accessible should necessarily require it.

These people represent the most modern and recent stratum of society, but long centuries ago there dwelled in America a people representing the oldest stratum—the paleozoic stratum of America's inhabitants.

They were the cliff dwellers of Arizona, living in a country later held by the Apache Indians. These Tonto cliff dwellers lived in fortresses built in the open caves along the mountain sides overhanging a narrow canyon. From the trail leading into this country the gray-walled ruins can be seen for miles.

Disturbed 1000 Years' Quiet When Coronado and his band of adventurers first set foot in the land in 1540, their eager eyes were focused on these relics of a forgotten race and they pressed on firm in the belief that at last they had found the frontier fortresses of the rich kingdom of Tonnac which they had long sought. But their impetuous advance was not met with a storm of arrows and no redskins rushed forth to do battle with stone ax against tempered steel. For no echo of human voice had disturbed the silent canyon for perhaps 1000 years.

These old clans were clever military builders and set their castles in the most inaccessible spots under overhanging cliffs. The steep slopes below they planted with barbed entanglements of cholla cactus. Black stone bound together with a strong adobe mortar made a product of masonry which has withstood the attacks of the elements for centuries. The central gates were flanked by towers and the windows were mere loop-holes. Doors were made low, perhaps for added defense, for no modern man can enter without "doubling up."

The most casual examination of the massive walls is sufficient evidence that this race was far above the savage, but their history must remain a mystery forever for the oldest Apache chief cannot recall even a legend regarding their history.
